<http://www.worldcat.org> to search for published genealogies and town histories for possible ILL of books and/or photocopies

<http://www.cyndislist.com> A free "comprehensive, categorized & cross-referenced list of links that point you to genealogical research sites online."

<http://rwguide.rootsweb.ancestry.com/?ssdmh=dm13.163834> (how-to "pamphlets;" a very comprehensive site.)

http://genealogy.about.com/cs/free\_genealogy/a/free\_sites.htm ("101 Ways to Research Your Family Tree for Free")

<http://www.usgenweb.org> "A group of volunteers working together to provide free genealogy websites for genealogical research in every county and every state of the United States."

<http://www.vtgenlib.org/index.php> The Vermont Genealogy Library at Fort Ethan Allen in Colchester provides resources, classes and help for individuals researching their Vermont, French-Canadian, Scottish, English, Irish or German ancestry. The Library is the home of www.vt-fcgs.org the Vermont French-Canadian Genealogical Society. See both of their websites for directions, current hours of their library (located at 29 Ethan Allen Ave., Fort Ethan Allen in Colchester), society activities, their journal and much more.

<http://www.familysearch.org/eng/default.asp> Website of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints.

<http://www.ancestry.com> Even though this is a membership fee website, there are a lot of free features: how-to's and forms, for example.

<http://books.google.com/> A collection of digitized, full-text books.

<http://www.archive.org/details/texts> More digitized, full-text books. This is an especially good site for local histories and genealogies that are no longer in copyright and which are seldom loaned through interlibrary loan.
