

Order Form for Additional 2014 State Park Passes

Vermont State Parks and the Department of Libraries have created this free day pass for every public library in Vermont, granting free admission to Vermont State Parks. Each library will receive one pass; libraries may purchase additional passes at a discount rate of $40.00 each. Passes will be mailed to public libraries (and participating college libraries) before opening day for the parks in May or within two weeks of the date ordered. Each library can set its own policies around circulation and use.

The library pass admits one vehicle holding up to eight people to a Vermont state park for one day.
