

VTLIB'S TUESDAY TALKS

Vermont Vision for a Multicultural Future: Unleash Your Creative Authority

Tuesday, March 19, 2019

12:00-1:00 pm

Pavilion Building Auditorium

Demographers indicate the number of consumers of color in the nation will overtake the number of white consumers in a scant 24 years. Business, civic, and town leaders must begin exercising their creative authority to make our communities competitive in a rapidly increasing racially diverse marketplace.

Vermont Partnership

FOR FAIRNESS AND DIVERSITY

Curtiss Reed, Jr. serves as executive director of Vermont Partnership for Fairness & Diversity, an organization that works to strengthen inclusive and equitable practices in Vermont. In addition, Reed serves as chair of the Vermont State Advisory Committee to the United States Commission on Civil Rights. He is a founding member of Vermont Independent Media, publisher of the award-winning Commons newspaper, as well as founding member of the Brattleboro Community Restorative Justice Center.

VERMONT DEPARTMENT OF LIBRARIES
(802) 636-0040
HTTPS://LIBRARIES.VERMONT.GOV

